Some commented sites and topics:

1. Château de Lourmarin:
   history, Renaissance style, main rooms
2. Silvacane Abbey:
   history, church, Romanesque architecture, dormitory, closter, chapter house, garden, locutory, refectory

The Château de Lourmarin is situated on the outskirts of the village of the same name and is at the centre of a triangle formed by Avignon, Aix and Manosque. Note that the Château is closed in January, except at weekends. The rest of the year it can be visited daily between 10 am and 11:30 am, then from 2:30 pm to either 4 pm, 4:30 pm or 5 pm, depending on whether you are there in spring, summer or autumn. The Chateau is located 13 miles north west of Aix and 18 miles east of Cavaillon.

Silvacane Abbey The nearest village is Roque d'Anthéron. The Abbey is located 9 miles from the Chateau of Lourmarin. You can leave your car in the Silvacane car park. From 1st of June to the end of September, the Abbey is open 10 am until 5 - 6 pm daily, with the exception of Tuesdays when it is closed. The entrance fee is around 6 euros.
